

HANDICAPPED

his is the Case with Many Barre People.

Too many Barre citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The increasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stopping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Can you doubt Barre evidence?

Mrs. E. B. Lawrence, box No. 71, R. F. D. No. 2, Barre, Vt., says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, I know that they are an effective kidney medicine. Last fall I began to suffer from kidney complaint and as one of my relatives had been cured of this trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to follow his example and try them. My back was so lame and painful that I could not do any work that required stooping or lifting. After I had taken the contents of three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I was relieved and again last spring when I used them, they benefited me. I keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house all the time and whenever an opportunity occurs, I recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBride Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WAITSFIELD.

Aged and Much Loved Pastor Tendered Farewell Reception.

A farewell reception was given Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Roberts Thursday evening of last week, which was well attended by friends and neighbors in and out of the Methodist church, of which Mr. Roberts has been the efficient and loved pastor for the past four and a half years. Mr. Roberts preached his farewell sermon last Sunday, which, perhaps, might better be called a heart-to-heart talk, which was very affecting and the many wet eyes in the congregation showed better than words could express that Mr. and Mrs. Roberts occupied a warm spot in the hearts of the people, regardless of creed or church membership. Mr. Roberts will long be remembered as a wise master builder in the church of Christ; a kind and loving sympathizer with those in trouble; ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, and a pastor who had a smile and a kind word for all. Strange to say, Mr. Roberts began his work as a minister in this town, forty-eight years ago, and although he has had many changes, he now closes his work as an active preacher in this place. He is now 74 years old and has retired from the ministry and gone to his home in Brownsville.

Bert Campbell has gone to Waterbury to work in the state hospital. Mrs. Campbell has gone to Burlington to care for a sick aunt.

John McLaughlin has traded his automobile for a new and much better one and during the summer will carry passengers anywhere they wish to go.

Henry Bettis and family have moved into the house, which he purchased from Mrs. Annette Savage, and Mrs. Savage has moved to J. C. Kingsbury's house near H. N. Bushnell's.

The schools in town will commence next Monday, with the exception of the high school, which will begin one week later. The same teachers will return.

Hon. M. S. Stone, superintendent of education, met the school officers of this and surrounding towns Monday, April 11, to talk over school matters. Among other things, the matter of forming a union district and employing a superintendent was discussed, and as nearly all were in favor of such a union, the possibility is that, in the near future, the towns of Mad River valley will unite and employ a superintendent.

SOMETHING FOR HEADACHE

Nothing else, aside from money, is so universally sought for as a cure for headache. Headache powders are not safe and they give only temporary relief in any event. The chocolate-coated and capsule-shaped pills called Sherman's Headache Remedy and sold by druggists and dealers at 10c and 25c are recommended as the best headache cure.

MONTPELIER.

Several Corporations Will Be Deprived of Licenses, Taxes Being Unpaid.

Miss Catherine Tupper, head clerk in the office of the commissioner of state taxes, at Burlington, is in the city checking up the corporations which have failed to pay their taxes for the year. According to the law, any corporation which does not pay its taxes must be reported to the secretary of state, the 10th of April, and its license is then revoked. To-morrow Miss Tupper will send letters of revocation to a number of corporations.

A Silk Matted Statue.

The warmest admirers of the silk hat will hardly claim that it lends itself to the sculptor's art. Yet the artist responsible for the bronze statue of Krupp on the lawn of the Kiel Yacht club has presented the ironmaster with a top hat and a walking stick in his right hand. He has also endowed him with a tightly fitting frock coat, carefully creased trousers and a mathematical putting in the center of the head, so that the statue looks more like a tailor's dummy than the representation of a captain of industry.—London Chronicle.

An Imposter.

"Mebbe you'd like to put a place about me in yer paper," quavered the old man, hobbling up to the city editor's desk.

"What have you done?" demanded the arbiter of publicity's destiny.

"Nothin' much, but I was a hundred years old yesterday."

"A hundred, eh? But can you walk without a stick and read fine print without glasses?"

"No."

"You are an imposter!"

The old man broke down and confessed he was only ninety-seven.—Cleveland Leader.

Embarrassing.

"Tommy," said the pretty teacher, "you don't see Mr. Tallman, the principal, coming to school with a soiled face?"

"No'm," pouted Tommy.

"Then why is it you should come in such a condition?"

"Because I'm not old enough to be fond of you, that's why."

The pretty teacher turned redder than the stove and told Tommy he would have to stay in after school.—Chicago News.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR

It Is Easy to Get and Keep.

When a fifty-cent bottle of Parisian Sage will put life, lustre and brilliancy into any woman's hair, why should any woman have repulsive or characterless hair, unless she wants to?

PROPOSAL IS BUSINESS.

New Girl Must Now Be Wooded in a Systematic Way.

"I want to tell you how much I love you!"

The beautiful young girl thus spoken to by the ardent youth for the first time held up her hand in token of assent. It was 5 o'clock in the afternoon. He had just come in to make an afternoon call, had discovered her already dressed for walking and had thus precipitated the scene.

"Pardon me for one moment," she said, with a smile, "but I must get my engagement book." She took it from her desk. Then she proceeded:

"I presume you wish to marry me?"

"Oh, yes!"

"And you will lead up to it by the usual methods?"

"I don't—"

"You will hold my hand, put your arm around me, try to kiss me—and possibly succeed—and all the time you will passionately declare your undying affection. Very well. You know that this takes time. I am obliged to regulate my affairs on a systematic basis, otherwise I could get nothing accomplished. Let me see. I should say the whole affair would take—how long should you say?"

The youth reflected.

"Four hours," he ventured.

"Mercy, no! I couldn't possibly give up so much time. Couldn't you get through in, say, forty minutes?"

"Make it an hour."

A pause.

"Very well."

She opened her book at a page.

"This week is taken. So is next week. Week after next—say Thursday at 8 o'clock—one hour."

She got up.

"Remember to be on time. Au revoir."

And she was gone.—Life.

As It Is Today.

"Got any country cousins coming to your reception?"

"Two of them."

"I'll bet you're worried to death."

"I certainly am. But then we can't all wear diamonds and come in a special train. We're not all lucky enough to be farmers' wives."—St. Louis Star.

A Footnote.

A very pretty girl applied for a position in the chorus.

When asked to sign the contract she blushing admitted that she was unable to write.

"Well," said the manager, "it does not matter. It isn't your signature the public wants to see anyhow."—Judge.
